Q Current Geo-political Events demands a re-orientation of the India's foreign policy. Do you agree with this view? comment.

Recently the Shanghai cooperation organisation (SCO) meeting was held in Uzebikstan, Samarkand was a test ~~of~~ for government on how to deal with current Geo-politics & attempt new guidlines for the future.

Now India is playing with a new Non-alignment movement, like for Russia case P.M Narendra Modi said it is not era to war, or ~~thanks~~ Thanked to Russia or Ukraine to save our Indian students from Ukraine war it reflects the new version of Non-alignment India should refashionable its foreign policy.

Russia — china is now more closer to russia to extend its power or for economy terms. so India has to increase its efficiency with Russia in terms of economics as well as its foreign policy.

2) Iran → when U.S.A Imposed sanctions on Iran ~~to or pressure~~ mai nor any country make trade with Iran. India have an opportunity to re-think about Iran or refaishion its policy like → Chabbhar port etc. or one more benefit Indian take from Iran → that is crude oil as when arab countries increased its oil prices so India import oil from Iran at reasonable price.

3) China → china increasing its hegemony in economy terms, so India ~~should~~ do not ignore china ~~in terms of~~ Both can make better relations or sort out their problems. because the primary conflict between India & China i.e, "civilizational" & not for territory. so enough this situation India formulate a policy that would not completely close the door of china
