प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

Q Discuss the significance of India's role in initiating the reforms in global multilateral institutions ?

Recently, External affairs minister S. Jai-shankar visited in the U.S for extend its multilateral relations & expanding its policy with others countries.

P.M Narendra Modi attended ~~the~~ SCO Meeting in Uzbikstan. this all shows India moving on multilateral path rather than Non-alignment.

In U.S visit of S. Jaishankar sir he replied on United nation security council ~~that he cannot say~~ matter that he don't have any idea about UNSC will change its reforms or not. But India itself said many times there should be immediate needs to reform in the UNSC.

There are many reasons ~~to it~~ in UNSC has to be change :-

प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

i) During COVID-19 situation UNSC became week, many countries suffers a lot in terms of vaccine, health equipment. India provided vaccines to other countries like, South-africa, Nepal, Bhutan etc. But UNSC not played a role there.

2) Russia-Ukraine war, UNSC not perform its role.

3) China expanding its hegemony in terms of economy, or maritime power, in South-China sea. here also UNSC not perform its duty.

UNSC become lethargic

i) only P-5 countries in UNSC group U.S, U.K, China, Russia, France. They make decision in global world for their benefits.

2) ~~There~~ These-P-5 countries use "VETO" when any reform or argument against anyone of them. like Russia used veto power in Ukraine, Russia war.

प्रश्न संख्या
(Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें
(Don't write anything in this part)

3) No other countries give their opinion to implement in global world.

India always pushed to U.S.A or P-5 countries to make reforms in UNSC. India is a part of QUAD, G-4, G20, SCO, etc. so, it recognise countries to start demanding ~~in UNSC~~ of Reforms in UNSC.

India will host G-20 in 2023 so, India have an opportunity to talk about UNSC reforms.