What are the key findings of the report?

- Dynamic Africa- Africa is undergoing significant changes in its demographics, economy, politics, and society.
- It is gradually moving towards regional integration and is committed to promoting democracy, peace, and progress.
- Incidents like insurgency, ethnic violence, and terrorism is still a challenging issue in Ethiopia, Sudan, and the Central African Republic.
- Participation of external partners- China, Russia, the United States, the European Union, Japan, Turkey, and the UAE are actively competing to strengthen their relations with Africa.
- They aim to secure market access, energy and mineral resources, and enhance their political and economic influence in the region.

- China's role- It is Africa's largest economic partner since 2000. The report identified China as an infrastructure developer, resource provider, and financier in Africa.
- India's role - The report notes that India has a substantive partnership with Africa and a rich fund of goodwill, but it is essential for New Delhi to review its Africa policy periodically.

India is a member of The African Development Bank, which brings together 54 African countries and 28 non-African partners. India has a voting share of 0.265%, 6.7 times lower than the 1.8% held by China.

What are the recommendations?
