

Concerns in HECI as the Regulator

What is the issue?

 $n\n$

\n

Government proposes to replace the University Grants Commission (UGC) with a Higher Education Commission of India.

 $n\n$

\n

 \bullet The proposal raises many concerns and has many unanswered questions. $\ensuremath{^{\backslash n}}$

What are the concerns?

 $n\n$

\n

- Role The role of HECI in relation to professional bodies is unclear.
- Depriving the HECI completely of funding functions may affect its efficacy.
- \bullet It may affect its stature in discharging its onerous responsibility. \n
- Funding The MHRD has been directly funding more than a hundred institutions of national importance.
- It includes Indian Institutes of Technology, National Institutes of Technology, Indian Institutes of Science Education and Research.
- \bullet Funding 47 Central universities should not pose a problem for the ministry.
- However, funding scheme for the State universities needs to be clearly worked out.
- A clear and transparent mechanism should be spelt out if it is to be funded through the Rashtriya Uchchatar Shiksha Abhiyan.

\n

• Besides, the effective role of HECI in regulating state institutions needs attention.

\n

• Autonomy - Certain new initiatives are proposed recently in the higher education sector.

\n

• This includes granting near complete autonomy to the Indian Institutes of Management.

۱n

• It also includes providing graded autonomy to other institutions.

\n

• Besides, more institutions are encouraged to move out of the regulatory ambit to develop into institutes of excellence.

\n

• Given these, the role of HECI as an overarching regulator has to be reassessed.

\n

 $n\n$

\n

- Structure HECI will have a chairperson, vice-chairperson and 12 members.
- The secretary of the HECI will be an officer of the rank of joint secretary and above.

\n

• S/he could also be a reputed academic and will serve as its member-secretary.

\n

- Will the secretary have voting rights or not as a member is unanswered.
- Also, government has overwhelming power to remove the chairperson and members.

۱n

- Secretary - The secretary is expected to play multiple roles: \n

 $n\n$

\n

i. acting as a member of the HECI

ii. serving as a member of search-cum-selection committee of the chairperson and vice-chairperson

\n

iii. processing their appointment as a key functionary of the government \n

 $n\n$

\n

 \bullet Such multiplicity of roles may create difficulties and conflict of interest. $\mbox{\ensuremath{^{\text{Nn}}}}$
