

Economy

In the light of the proposed shift in benchmark for reference population from 1971 to 2011 discuss the problems in using raw population figures to determine the weights for financial allocation across states and examine the factors which need to be consider before allocation to overcome such problems. (200 words)

\n\n

Refer - The Hindu

\n\n

Enrich the answer from other sources, if the question demands.

\n