

Extremism in Indonesia

What is the issue?

 $n\n$

Recent actions of Indonesian government threaten the long-cherished unity in diversity of that nation.

 $n\n$

What are the problems in Indonesia?

 $n\n$

\n

• Southeast Asia's largest economy, Indonesia has serious religious extremism.

۱'n

- About 88% of Indonesians are Muslim and the archipelago's Chinese community has periodically been subject to massacres.
- There is a strong growing vigilante Islamism.
- Recently right wing extremist smashed up bars and disrupted concerts by Western pop musicians.
- The space for non-Muslims to make personal comments in public or on social media is shrinking.

 $n$

What are the recent trails under blasphemy?

 $n\n$

۱n

 According to Human Rights Watch, 16 people have been persecuted and sentenced for blasphemy in the last three years \n

 $n\n$

\n

- \bullet Recently governor of Jakarta who is a Chinese Christian was imprisoned on charges of blasphemy. $$
- Right-wing vigilante groups began alleging that he had committed blasphemy while on the campaign trail for his 2017 re-election.
- \bullet The 'blasphemy' consisted of telling voters that they shouldn't be duped by religious leaders. $\ensuremath{\backslash n}$
- \bullet He stated that few religious leaders misuse the Koranic verse Al-Maidah 51 to justify claims that Muslims should not have non-Muslim leaders. $\ensuremath{^{\backslash n}}$

 $n\n$

 $n$

Source: The Hindu

\n

