

Glossary on addressing LGBTQIA++ Persons

Why in news?

The Tamil Nadu government has issued a glossary, as suggested by the Madras High Court, as to how the persons belonging to the third gender should be addressed.

Who are LGBTQIA++?

- The “L, G” and “B” refer to sexual orientation, meaning those to which one is attracted, most often referring to lesbian or gay.
- Bisexual is an attraction to both males and females.
- Transgender refers to one who identifies as a sex other than was named at birth.
- The Q indicates questioning and queer.
- Questioning is a label one might use to convey they are exploring their identity and may not want to label themselves while Queer is often used to identify oneself as a member of the LGBTQIA++ community.
- The “I” speaks to intersex in which a person is born with a reproductive or sexual anatomy that doesn’t seem to fit the typical definitions of female or male.
- ‘A’ refers to asexual who do not have sexual feelings.
- ‘++’ suggests openness and inclusivity.

What is the Madras High Court’s direction?

What is the glossary about?

- The glossary of terms was published in the Tamil Nadu government gazette of the Social Welfare and Women Empowerment department.
- It is about how to correctly describe members of the LGBTQIA+ community in the media.
- It would have a statutory backing.
- Whenever the LGBTQIA+ community is to be addressed by any forum, it is mandatory to describe them only by using the terms that have been mentioned in the gazette.

S.No	Tamil terms	English terms
1	Thirunangai	Transgender woman
2	Thirunambi	Transgender man
