\n

- Climate change, terrorism and growing protectionism were highlighted as three big challenges facing the world.
- Firm statements were made criticising the rising protectionism in the world, equating it with the dangers of terrorism.

\n

• It comes at a time when US President Trump is increasingly pushing the America First agenda.

\n

- Also, protectionism is leading to new types of tariff and non-tariff-based barriers hampering the bilateral and multilateral trade negotiations.
- \bullet He recorded that the unreadiness of the rich world in helping developing economies with new technology is slowing the carbon reduction efforts. \n
- He also reiterated India's willingness to keep up its agreed commitments on cutting carbon emissions.

\n

• Reforms and policies that India has undertaken to make India more open were highlighted as well.

\n

 \bullet Abolition of many archaic laws and allowing FDI in more than 90% of the sectors through the automatic route were mentioned among them. \n

What is the significance?

\n

- The Indian delegation at Devos showcased India as a fast-growing economic power and a potential driver of global growth.
- \bullet The occasion also recognised India's growth as an economic and geopolitical power.

\n

- \bullet However, India still has a lot of work to do to attract more investment.
- \bullet It calls for a relook at efforts on taming bureaucracy, tackling corruption and cleaning up pollution. $\mbox{\sc h}$
