Why income tax officials claim an exaggerated demand?

 $n\n$

\n

- In a recent report CAG had found that Income tax department has made 'exaggerated' demands on large companies.
- Exaggerated demand are Quid pro quo deals between the assessing officer and the assessee in the understanding that it will be refunded to the latter a few months later with interest.
- \bullet This exaggerated demands usually happens to meet the stiff, and often unrealistic, targets set by the Government for tax collections. \n
