

Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Bill, 2018

Why in news?

 $n\n$

The triple talaq bill was recently passed in the Lok Sabha and is to be passed by the Rajya Sabha.

What is the Bill on?

 $n\n$

\n

- The Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Bill, 2017 was introduced and passed in Lok Sabha.
- But the 2017 Bill was listed for withdrawal, due to lack of consensus in the Rajya Sabha.
- So an Ordinance was passed in September 2018 for the interim period.
- The Muslim Women (Protection of Rights on Marriage) Bill, 2018 now replaces the ordinance.
- The 2018 Bill underwent a near debate less passage in the Lok Sabha.
- The government rejected the Opposition's demand in the Rajya Sabha to send the Bill to a joint select committee for further scrutiny.
- So there is again a standoff in the Rajya Sabha for its passage. \n

What are the key changes in 2018 Bill?

 $n\n$

\n

• The Bill makes all declaration of talag, including in written or electronic form, to be void (i.e. not enforceable in law) and illegal.

- Definition of talaq includes talaq-e-biddat or any other similar form of talaq pronounced by a Muslim man resulting in instant and irrevocable divorce.
- Offence and penalty The Bill makes a declaration of talaq a cognizable offence.

\n

• It could attract up to 3 years imprisonment with a fine.

• [A cognizable offence is one for which a police officer may arrest an accused person without a warrant.]

 \bullet The offence will be cognizable only if information relating to the offence is given by - $\ensuremath{^{\mbox{\sc h}}}$

 $n\n$

\n

- i. the married woman (against whom talaq has been declared), or \n
- ii. any person related to her by blood or marriage

 $n\n$

\n

- Bail The Bill provides that the Magistrate may grant bail to the accused.
- \bullet The bail may be granted only after hearing the woman.
- The Magistrate has to be satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for granting bail.

۱n

• Compounding - The offence may be compounded by the Magistrate upon the request of the woman.

\n

- Compounding refers to the procedure where the two sides agree to stop legal proceedings, and settle the dispute.
- The terms and conditions of the compounding of the offence will be determined by the Magistrate.
- Allowance The woman is entitled to seek subsistence allowance from her husband for herself and for her dependent children. \n

- \bullet The amount of the allowance will be determined by the Magistrate.
- $\mathbf{Custody}$ The woman is entitled to seek custody of her minor children.

What are the concerns?

 $n\n$

\n

• Contrary to the intent of the legislation, it would weaken the position of Muslim women.

\n

• The question over the need for law when the five-judge Supreme Court Bench had outlawed the practice remains unanswered.

\n

• The Bill stipulates a three-year prison sentence and a fine. It is unclear why a civil contract should carry a criminal penalty.

\n

• The original Bill stated that the offence would be non-bailable, which has been reduced to a bailable offence in the latest version.

\n

• The woman is entitled to receive from her husband a subsistence allowance for her and her dependent children.

۱n

 Expecting a man, who is incarcerated for 3 years and with less chance to earn a livelihood, to pay allowance is illogical.
