

OPEC+

Why in News?

Brazil's government recently approved joining OPEC+, rising status as a key oil player.

- OPEC - Stands for the Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries.
- It is a permanent, intergovernmental Organization refers to a group of 12 of the world's major oil-exporting nations.
- Founded in - Baghdad in 1960.
- Founding members - Iran, Iraq, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, and Venezuela.
- Headquarters - Vienna, Austria.
- OPEC Members - Algeria, Congo, Equatorial Guinea, Gabon, Iran, Iraq, Kuwait, Libya, Nigeria, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates, and Venezuela.
- It will meet on every year to discuss their joint oil production policy
- Aim - To control the global oil supply and price.
- Objectives - It is to co-ordinate and unify petroleum policies among Member Countries, in order to secure fair and stable prices for petroleum producers.
- To give an efficient, economic and regular supply of petroleum to consuming nations; and a fair return on capital to those investing in the industry.
- OPEC membership is open to any country, substantial exporter of oil and which shares the ideals of the organization.

OPEC+

- The Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and allies including Russia are known collectively as OPEC+.
- Formed in - 2016.
- Members

Russia	Azerbaijan	Kazakhstan	Bahrain
Brunei	South Sudan	Oman	Mexico
	Malaysia	Sudan

- Significance of Brazil - Brazil was officially invited to join in 2023.

- Brazil is currently the world's 7th-largest oil producer, pumping around 4.3 million barrels per day, or 4% of global output.
- In 2024, crude oil overtook soy as the country's top export, making up 13.3% of total foreign sales.

References

1. Times of India | OPEC+
2. OPEC | About

