Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI)

\n\n

\n

- In this month survey, PMI reveals that manufacturing activity slowed to a 4 month low in June due to challenges imposed by GST.

\n

- PMI is an indicator of the economic health and investor sentiments about the manufacturing sector (there is services PMI as well).

\n

- The PMI is based on five major indicators: new orders, inventory levels, production, supplier deliveries and the employment environment.

\n

- Its purpose is to provide information about current business conditions to company decision makers, analysts and purchasing managers.

\n

- For India, the PMI Data is published by Japanese firm Nikkei but compiled and constructed by Markit Economics.

\n

- PMI and IIP - IIP shows the change in production volume in major industrial subsectors like manufacturing, mining and electricity. It covers broader industrial sector compared to PMI.

\n

- PMI show growth oriented positive trends and not just volume of past production that can be traced in an ordinary Index of Industrial Production.
