Capillary Action

NASA has come up with a space cup that will help astronauts drink liquids just like we do here on Earth.

- Liquid under zero gravity - In a near zero-gravity environment, like on the International Space Station, liquids behave very differently.
- The lack of gravity causes them to float around in blobs that are difficult to handle.
- They do not really settle down into cups and makes it very difficult to drink.
- NASA's Capillary Cup - NASA has designed a super cup to drink liquids in space for astronauts.
- The cup functions based on combination of surface tension, wetting and cup geometry to keep the liquids in place.
- The porcelain ceramic version of the cup was designed on the International Space Station.
- It is the first patented product invented in orbit.

- Capillary action - It is the movement or flow of liquid through a narrow tube using surface tension.
- It occurs when the adhesion between liquid and solid is greater than the cohesion of the fluid.
- The narrower the tube, the capillary action is also more.

Komaram Bheem and Alluri Sitharama Raju

The Telugu movie 'RRR' was inspired by the lives of Indian freedom fighters Alluri Sitharama Raju and Komaram Bheem.

- Both Alluri Sitharama Raju and Komaram Bheem were 20th-century revolutionaries who led tribal people in present-day Andhra Pradesh against the British and the Nizams.

Alluri Sitharama Raju

- Raju is believed to have been born on 04 July 1897, in a village called Mogallu near Bhimavaram in Andhra Pradesh.
- By the age of 18, he became a sanyasi renouncing all worldly pleasures and mingled with the local tribal community.
- These tribes followed the 'Podu' system of cultivation, whereby every year some amounts of forest tracts were cleared for cultivation.
- The Madras Forest Act of 1882 banned the collection of minor forest produce and tribal people were forced into labour by the colonial government.
- It restricted the free movement of the tribal communities and prohibiting them from engaging in Podu agricultural system.
- This oppressive order was the beginning of the tribal revolt, also known as the Manyam Rebellion.
- In August 1922, he launched the Rampa Rebellion against the British.
- He used guerrilla warfare along with his army of tribal people to fight against the British.
- However, on 07 May 1924, he was treacherously trapped, tied to a tree, and shot dead.
- He was honoured for his valour and fiery spirit with the title, "Manyam Veerudu" (Hero of the Jungle).
- On his 125th birth anniversary our Prime Minister unveiled a 30-ft bronze statue of him at Bhimavaram, in the West Godavari district.

Komaram Bheem

- Komaram Bheem was born on October 22, 1901, at Sankepally village in Asifabad.
- He hailed from the Gond tribal community.
- Bheem's family migrated to Sardapur village in Kerimeri mandal after his father's death.
- Nizam's government used to collect tax in the name of 'Bambram' and Dupapetti for grazing cattle and collecting firewood for cooking.
- He led a rebellion against the Nizams of Hyderabad opposing the taxes.

- The slogan 'Jal, Jangal, Jameen' (water, forest, land) was given by Bheem to fight for tribal freedom and rights and oppose the taxes.
- Komaram Bheem died in the battle against the Nizam's army in Jodeghat forest.
- Asifabad district has been renamed as 'Komaram bheem District' since 2016.
