Rule 267 of RS Rule Book

Rule 267 of the Rajya Sabha rulebook has become the bone of contention in Rajya Sabha.

- Rule 267 of the Rajya Sabha rulebook has become a bone of contention in the Upper House as not a single notice under the rule moved by the Opposition has been accepted in the Winter Session.
- Rule 267 - The Rule 267 of the Rajya Sabha rulebook gives special power to a Rajya Sabha member to suspend the pre-decided agenda of the House, with the approval of the Chairman.
- Significance - No other form of discussion entails suspension of other business.
- If an issue is admitted under Rule 267, it signifies it's the most important national issue of the day.
- Also, the government will have to respond to the matter by replying during the discussions under Rule 267.
- Reason for rejection as said - Moving motions under 'Rule 267' has become a known mechanism of causing disruption.

The Rajya Sabha rule book defines 'Rule 267' under 'suspension of rules' as an instance where "any Member, may, with the consent of the Chairman, move that any rule may be suspended in its application to a motion related to the business listed before the council of that day and if the motion is carried, the rule in question shall be suspended for the time- being."

- Exception - The rule will not apply where specific provisions already exist for suspension of a rule under a particular chapter of the Rules.

- In History - Parliamentary records said that there were 11 instances between 1990 up till 2016 that this rule was invoked for various discussions.
- The last instance was in 2016 when then Chairman Hamid Ansari allowed for a debate on the “demonetisation of currency”.

Vice-President (Chairman of Rajya Sabha)	Number of times invoked	To Debate
Shankar Dayal Sharma (1987 -1992)	4 times (between 1990 to 1992)	1. The Jammu and Kashmir situation 2. The 66th Constitution Amendment Bill, (Land Reforms- Ninth Schedule) 3. The Gulf War situation 4. The demolition of the Ayodhya temple
Bharon Singh Shekhawat (2002-2007)	3 times (In 2004)	1. Issues of corruption 2. Consideration and return of the Appropriation (Railways) No. 3 Bill 3. Consideration and return of the Appropriation (No.3)
Hamid Ansari (2007-2012 & 2012-2017)	4 times	1. Role of CBI in Coalgate scam 2. Attack on the secular fabric of the country 3. Agrarian crisis 4. Demonetisation of currency
