Goldman Environmental Prize

\n\n

\n

- The Goldman Environmental Prize honors grassroots environmental heroes from the world's six inhabited continental regions: Africa, Asia, Europe, Islands & Island Nations, North America, and South & Central America.
- The Prize recognizes individuals for sustained and significant efforts to protect and enhance the natural environment, often at great personal risk.
- The Prize is given by Goldman Environmental Foundation, which was launched by late Philanthropists Richard and Rhoda Goldman.
- This year, an activist from India has been chosen for this Prize.
- Samantara, an iconic leader of social justice movements, led a historic 12-year legal battle that affirmed the indigenous Dongria Kondh's land rights and protected the Niyamgiri hills from a massive, open-pit aluminum ore mine.

India-Bangladesh Friendship Bridge

\n\n

\n

- The bridge is constructed on the river Feni in Tripura State.

\n

- The 150-metre bridge will connect Sabroom of India and Ramgarh in Bangladesh.

\n

- Chittagong port is located 72 kilometre away from Sabroom. Thus this bridge would facilitate implementation of a protocol India earlier signed with Bangladesh to use Chittagong sea port as a 'port of call'.

\n

- This connectivity plan is to benefit Tripura and other landlocked northeastern States with international and domestic shipments using the sea port.

\n

\n\n

River Feni

\n\n

\n

- Feni River is a trans-boundary river, originated in the state of Tripura and passes through sabroom town and finally enters into South Eastern border of Bangladesh.

\n

- Muhuri is the tributary of Feni, which originates from Tripura and combines with feni near to the region of Bay of Bengal in Bangladesh.

\n

- Muhuri River is also called as the Little Feni.
