Consolidation of Regional Rural Banks

\n\n

\n

- RRBs were set up with the objective to provide credit to the small and marginal farmers, agricultural labourers, artisans and small entrepreneurs in rural areas for development of productive activities.

\n

- RRBs are jointly owned by Government of India, the concerned State Government and Sponsor Banks with the issued capital in the ratio of 50:15:35 respectively.

\n

- Earlier, the Government has sought comments of respective State Governments and Sponsor Banks on a roadmap for consolidation of RRBs within a State.

\n

- In line with the proposal, the roadmap for consolidation of RRB has been prepared in consultation with NABARD.

\n

- It is expected that it will bring better scale-efficiency, higher productivity, robust financial health of RRBs, improved financial inclusion and greater credit flow to rural areas.

- \n
- Earlier, the government approved the extension of the scheme of recapitalization of RRBs for the next 3 years upto 2019-20.
- \n
- This was done to help RRBs to maintain the minimum prescribed Capital to Risk Weighted Assets Ratio (CRAR) of 9 per cent.
