Whanganui River

\n\n

\n

- It is the third longest in New Zealand.

\n

- The local Maori tribe had been fighting to assert their rights over the river since the 1870s.

\n

- Recently the river has been recognised by Parliament as a “legal person” i.e formally declared a living entity.

\n

- It will have its own legal identity with all the corresponding rights, duties and liabilities of a legal person.

\n

- In practical terms, it means the river can be represented at legal proceedings with two lawyers protecting its interests.

Institute of National Importance (INI)

\n\n

\n

- INI is a status conferred to a premier public higher education institution in India by an act of parliament.

\n

- It is conferred on an institution which "serves as a pivotal player in developing highly skilled personnel within the specified region of the country/state".

\n

- INIs receive special recognition and funding.

\n

- All IITs, NITs, AIIMS', School of Planning and Architecture and Indian Institutes of Science Education and Research are considered Institutes of National Importance.
