

Raisina Dialogue

Why in the news?

The 10th edition of the Raisina Dialogue, India's flagship conference on geopolitics and geo-economics, is scheduled from March 17 to 19, 2025, in New Delhi.

- Aim - To bring together leaders and thinkers from around the world.
- Launched in - 2016 by the Ministry of External Affairs as a “flagship Indian international dialogue”.
- Theme - Kalachakra - People, Peace and Planet.
- 6 thematic pillars - The address pressing global challenges through discussions across 6 thematic pillars.

6 thematic pillars

Politics Interrupted: Shifting Sands and Rising Tides

Resolving the Green Trilemma: Who, Where, & How

Digital Planet: Agents, Agencies and Absences

Militant Mercantilism: Trade, Supply Chains & the Exchange Rate Addiction

The Tiger's Tale: Rewriting Development with a New Plan

Investing in Peace: Drivers, Institutions, & Leadership

- Similar events - Munich Security Conference and Singapore’s Shangri-La Dialogue.

Key Issues that are expected to be discussed in the dialogue are:

- Ukraine Conflict & U.S.-Russia Relations - The presence of Ukraine’s Foreign Minister Andrii Sybiha and U.S. Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard signals intense discussions on ceasefire negotiations and shifting global alliances.
- Trump’s Foreign Policy Shifts - The impact of U.S. President Donald Trump’s policies on global trade, NATO relations, and Indo-Pacific strategy will be debated.
- Quad and Indo-Pacific Strategy - A high-level panel comprising naval leadership from India, Australia, Japan, and the U.S. will discuss expanding maritime cooperation, reflecting India’s commitment to countering Chinese assertiveness.
- Nuclear and Security Concerns - International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) chief Rafael Grossi’s participation highlights ongoing nuclear non-proliferation challenges, including the Iran nuclear issue.

Notable Trends

- Pakistan's Non-Participation - Given ongoing hostilities, Pakistani delegates have been traditionally absent from the Raisina Dialogue, reaffirming India's policy of limited engagement.
- Russia's Reduced Presence - The absence of Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov, who previously faced intense scrutiny over the Ukraine war, underscores the shifting diplomatic landscape.
- China's Minimal Representation - The inclusion of an academic from Fudan University reflects a cautious but improving engagement following last year's Modi-Xi Jinping meeting.
