

Relevance of International Yoga Day for India

Why in News?

Recently, the 10th International Yoga Day was celebrated globally.

What is yoga?

- Yoga is fundamentally a spiritual practice founded on a highly delicate science that seeks to achieve harmony between mind and body.
- Origin - Yoga is an ancient and complex practice, rooted in Indian philosophy.
- The term yoga means “coming together” or “joining”.
- Thus, yoga entails the unification of our body, breath, mind, and awareness.
- Literary sources - Vedas, Upanishads, Smritis, Buddhist teachings, Jainism, Panini, Epics, Puranas and so on.
- Development - Maharishi Patanjali wrote complete and authoritative writings on yoga, grammar, and ayurveda to assist humanity purify their thoughts, speech, and bodies, respectively.
- The Patanjali Yoga Sutras are a ground-breaking literature that conveys the full discipline of yoga in simple yet profound sutra form.
- Forms - Although classical yoga also includes other elements, yoga is mainly practiced and emphasizes
 - Physical postures (asanas)
 - Breathing techniques (pranayama)
 - Meditation (dyana)
- There are many different yoga styles, ranging from gentle practices to physically demanding ones.
- Physical health - If we can manage our bodies, we can also control our breathing.
- If we can regulate our breathing, we can control our thoughts.
- Improves mental health - Yoga can help to awaken and enhance these skills.
- Peace of mind has an impact on everything.
- Thus, yoga aims to promote such overall improvement.

Yoga and two practices of Chinese origin—tai chi and qigong—are sometimes called “meditative movement” practices. All three practices include both meditative elements and physical ones.

How has India benefited from International Yoga Day?

- International recognition - On December 11, 2014, the United Nations General Assembly declared June 21 to be the International Day of Yoga, thanks to India’s efforts.

- The 10th International Day of Yoga was celebrated in 2024 under the theme “Yoga for Self and Society.”
- Global reach - It has reached many nations including developed nations like USA, Canada, UK, and so on.
- Globally around 300 million people practice yoga regularly.
