What were the concerns with Section 377?

 $n\n$

\n

"Whoever voluntarily has carnal intercourse against the order of nature with any man, woman or animal, shall be punished with imprisonment for life, or with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, and shall also be liable to fine."

\n

 $n\n$

۱n

• Section 377 creates a class of criminals, consisting of individuals who engage in consensual sexual activity.

\n

• It typecasts Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender, Queer (LGBTQ) individuals as sex-offenders.

\n

• It categorised their consensual conduct on par with sexual offences like rape and child molestation.

۱n

• This has led to stigmatisation and condemnation of LGBTQ individuals in society.

• It was a cause for institutional discrimination faced by the LGBTQ community in health care, which even led to ineffective HIV prevention and treatment.

What was the judgment?

 $n\n$

\n

- The Bench unanimously held that criminalisation of private consensual sexual conduct between adults of the same sex was clearly unconstitutional.
- The court, however, held that the Section 377 would apply to "unnatural" sexual acts like bestiality.

\n

• Sexual act without consent would also continue to be a crime under Section 377.

What was SC's rationale?

 $n\n$

\n

• Individual - Bodily autonomy is individualistic as it is a matter of choice and is part of dignity.

\n

• Sexual orientation is biological and innate, as an individual has no control over who they get attracted to.

\n

- \bullet Any repression of this by the state will be a violation of free expression. $\ensuremath{\backslash} n$
- Rights Homosexuals, as individuals, have a fundamental right to live with dignity and possess full range of constitutional rights.
- These include sexual orientation, partner choice, equal citizenship and equal protection of laws.
- The State cannot decide the boundaries between what is permissible and not.

\n

\n

• Society - Section 377 is based on deep-rooted gender stereotypes ingrained in the society.

\n

- It is a majoritarian impulse to subjugate a sexual minority to live in silence.
- But the societal morality cannot override constitutional morality and fundamental rights.

\n

- \bullet Nature The verdict noted that homosexuality was documented in 1,500 species and was not unique to humans.
- This firmly dispels the prejudice that homosexuality is "against the order of nature".

\n

• Right to love - Section 377 speaks not just about non-procreative sex but also about forms of intimacy.

\n

• This, the court has acknowledged as the 'right to love'.

 \bullet But the social order finds some of these 'disturbing'.

• It is the result of limits imposed by structures such as gender, caste, class, religion and community.

\n

- These limits affect the "right to love" of not just the LGBTQ individuals, but of couples who make relationships across caste and community lines.
- Perception The recent parliamentary re-enactment of the Mental Healthcare Act of 2017 was mentioned.

\n

• The present definition in the Act makes it clear that homosexuality is not considered to be a mental illness.

- It is reaffirmed that mental illness shall not be determined on the basis of non-conformity with moral, social, cultural, religious beliefs.
- Awareness The Centre was urged to take all measures to ensure that the judgment is given wide publicity.
- \bullet Government was instructed to initiate programmes to reduce and eliminate the stigma against homosexuality. \n

\n

• Government officials and police will have to be given periodic sensitisation campaigns.

What are the shortcomings?

 $n\n$

\n

- How the judgment operates on the ground is yet to be seen as recent orders on triple divorce and lynching have not had visible impact.
- \bullet The judgment has opened up grey areas, and new guidelines will be needed. $\ensuremath{^{\backslash n}}$
- \bullet e.g Say, a gay individual withdraws "consent" and lodges a complaint against their partner. $\ensuremath{\backslash} n$
- \bullet India's laws on sexual assault do not recognise men as victims of rape. Police will now have to establish the principle of consent. \n
