

Year End Review 2018 - Department of Sports (Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports)

How has it been for India in sports in 2018?

\n\n

\n

- The year 2018 has turned out to be the landmark for India in terms of achievements in Sports arena.

\n

\n\n

\n

- Commonwealth Games, 2018 - 2018 Commonwealth Games on the Gold Coast, Australia was India's 18th appearance at the Commonwealth Games.

\n

- With 66 Medals, India finished 3rd for the tournament. It was India's best position since the 2010 Commonwealth Games.

\n

- Asian Games, 2018, and Para Asian Games, 2018 - India put a commendable performance in Asian Games 2018 at Jakarta and Palembang (Indonesia).

\n

- With 69 medals, India was placed at 8th position in medals tally.

\n

- With 72 medals, India finished overall 9th, the highest ever by India at an Asian Para Game, outdoing the previous best by a huge margin.

\n

- Youth Olympic Games - India finished overall 14th in the medals tally, in Youth Olympic Game (YOG) in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

\n

- With 13 medals, outdoing the previous best, this was the highest ever by India at YOG.

\n

- 2018 AIBA Women's World Boxing Championships - It was held in New Delhi, where Mary Kom of India beat Ukrainian boxer Hana Okhota to win the gold in the light flyweight category.

\n

- She became the first woman boxer to win six gold medals in the AIBA

(International Boxing Association) World Boxing Championships.

\n

- India stood 3rd in the medal tally with one gold, one silver and two bronze.

\n

\n\n

What are the major support initiatives?

\n\n

\n

- National Sports Development Fund (NSDF) - NSDF was established with the objective of promotion of excellence in sports through support to top level sportspersons and creation of sports infrastructure in priority disciplines.

\n

- India Infrastructure Finance Company Limited (IIFCL) made contribution of Rs.10.00 Crore to the NSDF.

\n

- The IIFCL contribution is being utilized for promotion of sports in the disciplines Badminton, Archery and Para Sports.

\n

- Maulana Abul Kalam Azad (MAKA) Trophy - The Union Sports Minister approved the revised guidelines for MAKA Trophy.

\n

- It was to rationalize and simplify the selection of top performing university in sports for award of MAKA Trophy.

\n

- The amount of award money for the overall all winner university has been enhanced from Rs. 10 lakh to Rs. 15 lakh.

\n

- Pension - Pension to meritorious sportspersons was revised for the welfare of Sportspersons.

\n

- The rate of pension has been doubled of the existing rate of pension on winning medals in international sports events.

\n

- The rate of pension of medal winners in the Para-Olympics Games and Para Asian Games will be at par with winners in the Olympic Games and Asian Games respectively.

\n

- Scholarship programme under Khelo India - More than 1100 players were identified for a scholarship programme under Khelo India Talent Identification Development scheme.

\n

- Under this programme, an annual stipend of Rs. 1.2 lakhs will be given to the players on a quarterly.
\n
- It is designed to take care of their expenses on training, development, boarding and lodging and tournament exposure apart from offering them out of pocket expense allowance.
\n
- Financial Assistance - The Ministry is operating Pandit Deendayal Upadhyay National Welfare Fund for Sportspersons (PDUNWFS).
\n
- It is to assist outstanding sportspersons of the past who had brought glory to the country, living in impoverished circumstances.
\n
- Special (Cash) Awards - It is a Scheme of Special (Cash) Awards to Medal Winners in International Sports Events and their Coaches.
\n
- A total of around Rs. 11 crore has been given to winning sportspersons during 2018-19 so far.
\n

\n\n

What are the institutional and promotional programmes?

\n\n

- Government has taken up a two pronged approach to sports -
\n

\n\n

- i. nurture top sports talent
\n
- ii. find untapped sports stars at the grassroots
\n

\n\n

- Khelo India School Games (KISG), 2018 - 1st Khelo India School Games, 2018 were held with participation from all States and Union Territories.
\n
- Maharashtra, Delhi and Haryana outshined others.
\n
- More than 1100 sports talents have been identified; they will be imparted training for next 8 years with annual expenditure on each athlete of Rs. 5 lakh.

\n

- Republic Day Parade Tableau of the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports was adjudged the best among all Ministries.

\n

- Theme of the Tableau of the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports was Khelo India.

\n

- National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA) - NADA put its efforts during the 1st Khelo India School Games, Delhi.

\n

- It ensured that sports integrity is maintained and the participating sports persons become aware of International Standards on it.

\n

- A total of 377 dope tests were conducted by NADA to make the school games dope free.

\n

- NADA also tested as many as 498 Indian Athletes prior to Asian Games, the largest testing conducted by NADA before any international games.

\n

- To monitor the Code Compliance activities, World Anti Doping Agency (WADA) audit team audited anti doping program of NADA, India last year.

\n

- Followed by Corrective Action Report recommended by WADA's audit team, NADA has implemented the corrective action.

\n

- As per the annual statistics report published by WADA, the number of anti doping rule violation in India has come down, bringing India from 3rd to 6th place globally.

\n

- National Sports University, Manipur - The National Sports University Act, 2018 came into place for establishing a National Sports University in Manipur.

\n

- It will be the first of its kind to promote sports education (Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral programmes) in sports sciences, sports technology, sports management and sports coaching.

\n

- Besides, it will also function as the national training centre for select sports disciplines, by adopting best international practices.

\n

\n\n

\n

- National Centre of Sports Sciences and Research (NCSSR) - The scheme aims to support high level research, education and innovation with respect to high performance of elite athletes.

\n

- The scheme has two components-

\n

\n\n

\n

- i. setting up of NCSSR at NIS, Patiala

\n

- ii. creation of support to Sports Sciences Department in select Universities and Sports Medicine Departments in select Medical Colleges/ Institutes/ Hospitals

\n

\n\n

\n

- National Sports & Adventure Awards 2018 :

\n

\n\n

\n

1. Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna - to S. Mirabai Chanu (Weightlifting) and Virat Kohli (Cricket)

\n

2. Dronacharya Award, Arjuna Award and Dhyan Chand Award - to 32 sportspersons/coaches in various disciplines

\n

3. Tenzing Norgay National Adventure Award - to 10 persons in categories of Land Adventure, Water Adventure and one award to Life Time Achievement category

\n

4. Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Trophy - to Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar

\n

5. Rashtriya Khel Protsahan Puruskar to three (3) entities -

\n

\n\n

\n

- i. Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Limited in 'Identification and Nurturing of Budding & Young Talent' category

\n

- ii. JSW Steel in 'Encouragement to Sports through Corporate Social Responsibility'

\n

iii. Isha Foundation in category of 'Sports for Development'

\n

\n\n

\n

- Kho Kho - Participation of Kho Kho team from India at the First International Kho Kho Championship in England was approved with financial support from the Government.

\n

- The approval was given for the first time in relaxation of existing guidelines.

\n

- Notably, sports disciplines like Kho Kho are categorised as “Others” which will not be eligible for financial support for participation in International sporting events.

\n

- PG Diploma course - The Ministry has funded and guided Indian Institute of Management, Rohtak to commence a 2-year Post-Graduate Diploma course in Business Management in Sports.

\n

- This is to strengthen the overall sports ecosystem in the country and to develop expertise in various sectors.

\n

\n\n

\n\n

Source: PIB

\n

