

Golden Globe Race

Why in news?

The French fishing vessel Osiris rescued Commander Abhilash Tomy in the southern Indian Ocean.

What happened?

- Indian sailor and Navy officer, Commander Abhilash Tomy KC was part of the Golden Globe race(GGR).
- Tomy was the only Indian in the race and was in the third position when he was stranded.
- His yacht was dismantled after running into deadly storm in the southern ocean.
- He suffered severe back injury due to the incident.

- He had sailed over 10,500 nautical miles in the previous 84 days.
- He was traced by the Indian Navy Reconnaissance after he sent out distress messages from his vessel.
- Finally he was rescued by the French vessel Osiris.

What is the Golden Globe Race?

- The Golden Globe Race (GGR) is a solo sailing race around the globe in a yacht with no kind of modern technology.
- The uniqueness of the race is that boat designs and technology newer than 1968 is not permitted.

- Hence use of Global Positioning System (GPS), satellite communication, navigational aids, etc is forbidden.
- However they are provided with satellite phone for medical emergencies.
- It was organised to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Sunday Times Golden Globe.
- Sunday Times Golden Globe race took place in 1968.
- In the 1968 race Sir Robin Knox-Johnston became the first person to make a non-stop solo circumnavigation trip.
- Thuriya, Cdr Tomy's boat is a replica of Sir Knox-Johnston's original winner, Suhaili.
- It is 32 feet long, and has been built by Aquarius Shipyard Pvt Ltd, Goa.
- Suhaili was built in Bombay with help from the Royal Bombay Yacht Club, in 1963.

What is the course of GGR?

- The race course is an over-48,000-km east-about circumnavigation starting and finishing in Les Sables-d'Olonne, Western France.
- It follows the route of the original 1968-69 race.
- The boats sailed down the Atlantic from north to south, down the west coast of Africa and around the Cape of Good Hope.
- They will then sail south of Australia before coming around to the tip of South America.
- Finally they will go around Tierra del Fuego before sailing north on the Atlantic Ocean back to the French coast.
