As india & china resolve their border dispute Asia is providing the multilateral alternative to a World divided by values, and no longer by ideology. Analyse?

Again ~~after~~ a long break after Doklam Crisis, BRI disputes, both china & india become Bhai-Bhai in the diplomatic relationship between them. Both countries play Active role in BRICS, Shanghai Cooperation Organisation, but some issues remain between them in Security and trade sector.

Recent developments

1) Resolve Border Dispute

After Doklam Standoff both Nations Come close to resolve issues with mutual Cooperation, is a good initiative

2) Successful Army bilateral Exercise hand-in-hand between india-china

3) China - India, Second informal Summit at Mamallapuram like Wuhan Summit

4) In the time of trade war between Us, China need support of India and its Co-operation in trade, both Countries actively Participated in recent Brics Summit at Brazil, and discuss more opportunities.

5) China Step back from blindly support Pakistan, recently refused to support Pak more to support Muhammad Azhar and save him from declare as a "global terrorist"

Way Forward

Keep the relationship warm is the ~~most~~ necessary factor, because both nations need one another to overcome global economical & security issues. Active Participation of both in SCO, BRICS, UN general assembly mandate that the world divide by values and no longer by ideology.
