Through India's abortion law was liberal for its time, it has limitations and must be amended. critically Analyse.

LIMITATIONS OF ABORTION LAW

1) The right to decide by the women for herself does not fall within the ambit of MTP Act.

2) The act allows abortion upto 20 weeks but in case of foetal abnormalities and pregnancies due to rape the time limit acts as a hurdle for both the women and the provider

3) For abortion after the legal gestation limit the women has no choice other than to appeal to the courts for permission to terminate the pregnancy.

NEED FOR AMENDMENT :

1) Due to 20 week time limit there is a high prevalence of illegal abortions, leading to maternal deaths.

2) After 20 weeks Judiciary acceptance is necessary which leads to delay in Justice and ~~lead~~ time appearing to delivery

3) Exploitation of Mothers, ~~an~~ importantly unmarried womens. Doctors charge large amount of fee for the procedure. Fear

The decision to terminate a pregnancy is never an easy or mechanical decision and it takes a severe toll on the affected parties, ~~and~~ especially women. The right of women to choose what to do with the foetus has to be balanced with the right of the foetus to survive.
