

Date-13-08-23) C15-2) Polity)

- Q) How fraternity in India is different from the idea enshrined in the constitution? Discuss (10 words)
- Ans) In whole world, Fraternity comes from French revolution of 1789 which mean a brotherhood thinking among people of country.
- Fraternity is mention in our mirror of constitution.

Fraternity enshrined in Indian constitution

1) Integral Value system

- Fraternity built on Integral values. It gave collectively view then individual.
- It also help for unite people of India in different section.

2) Unique societal landscape

India's Fraternity, help married by caste system.

3) Secured conception

Fraternity should be cultivated through political conditioning, with different religion with some morality.

4) Constitutional objectivity

The Indian constitution recognizes the significance of Fraternity in a society with various inequality.

5) Affirmative Action

Reservation system, Aim to established social, ~~economical~~ economical equality among them. etc.

6) Ignoring inequality

7) Nationalism Vs Fraternity

Nationalism can replace the call for Fraternity casting religious minorities as enemies.

8) Fraternity impact on fundamentalism

Fundamentalism, contradicts the essence of Fraternity, as fanaticism is incompatible with true Fraternity.

In summary of It is said that the In dia, the existence of caste system, inequality etc impacted fraternity, Achieving true political fraternity on the principles of equality, liberty and solidarity across diverse social groups.