India has indicated a more independent foreign policy with Iran. Justify.

Iran's foreign minister's visit to India was a significant event in ironing out the differences between the two countries.

Independent foreign policy

India abstained from voting against Iran in the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA). It reassigned its policy of non-alignment, previously in 2003, 06, 04 India has voted against Iran.

With increasing pressure on fuel prices globally, India is in the thought process to expand its oil basket by increasing imports from Iran.

with the the council of JCPOA is expected, the energy security of India can be expanded with Iran.

Due, to CATSA threatens the Chabahar

port development has got a pause. with pressure easing, the Chabahar port can be used to leverage central Asian ties.

~~concerns~~ concerns - Trade decreased to $2 Billion

from $17 Billion in just three years.

Also, India's participation in ASIA

Quad is seen as an anti Iran

stand.

with national needs and global world order being dynamic a strong relation with Iran is inevitable and India has restarted its closer ties with it.
