

Q) Civil Society Organisations should optimise the opportunity to bridge the gap between government agencies and most vulnerable by generating trust among the people. Explain (200 words)

Covid-19 Pandemics, the Contributions of Civil Society Organisations is very crucial, especially the CSOs of Delhi along with Delhi government working is appreciated by all over India.

CSO fits importance

CSO, following Gandhian Principles along with the Participatory Demo Cracy. Based on working CSO divided in to three

1) Participatory $\Rightarrow$ Touch with people, especially for the Overcome Socio. Economical Problems eg:- 1) Swachh gram Contributions in Swachh Bharat mission

2) Leprosy ~~xxx~~ eradication mission by B.B. Amte

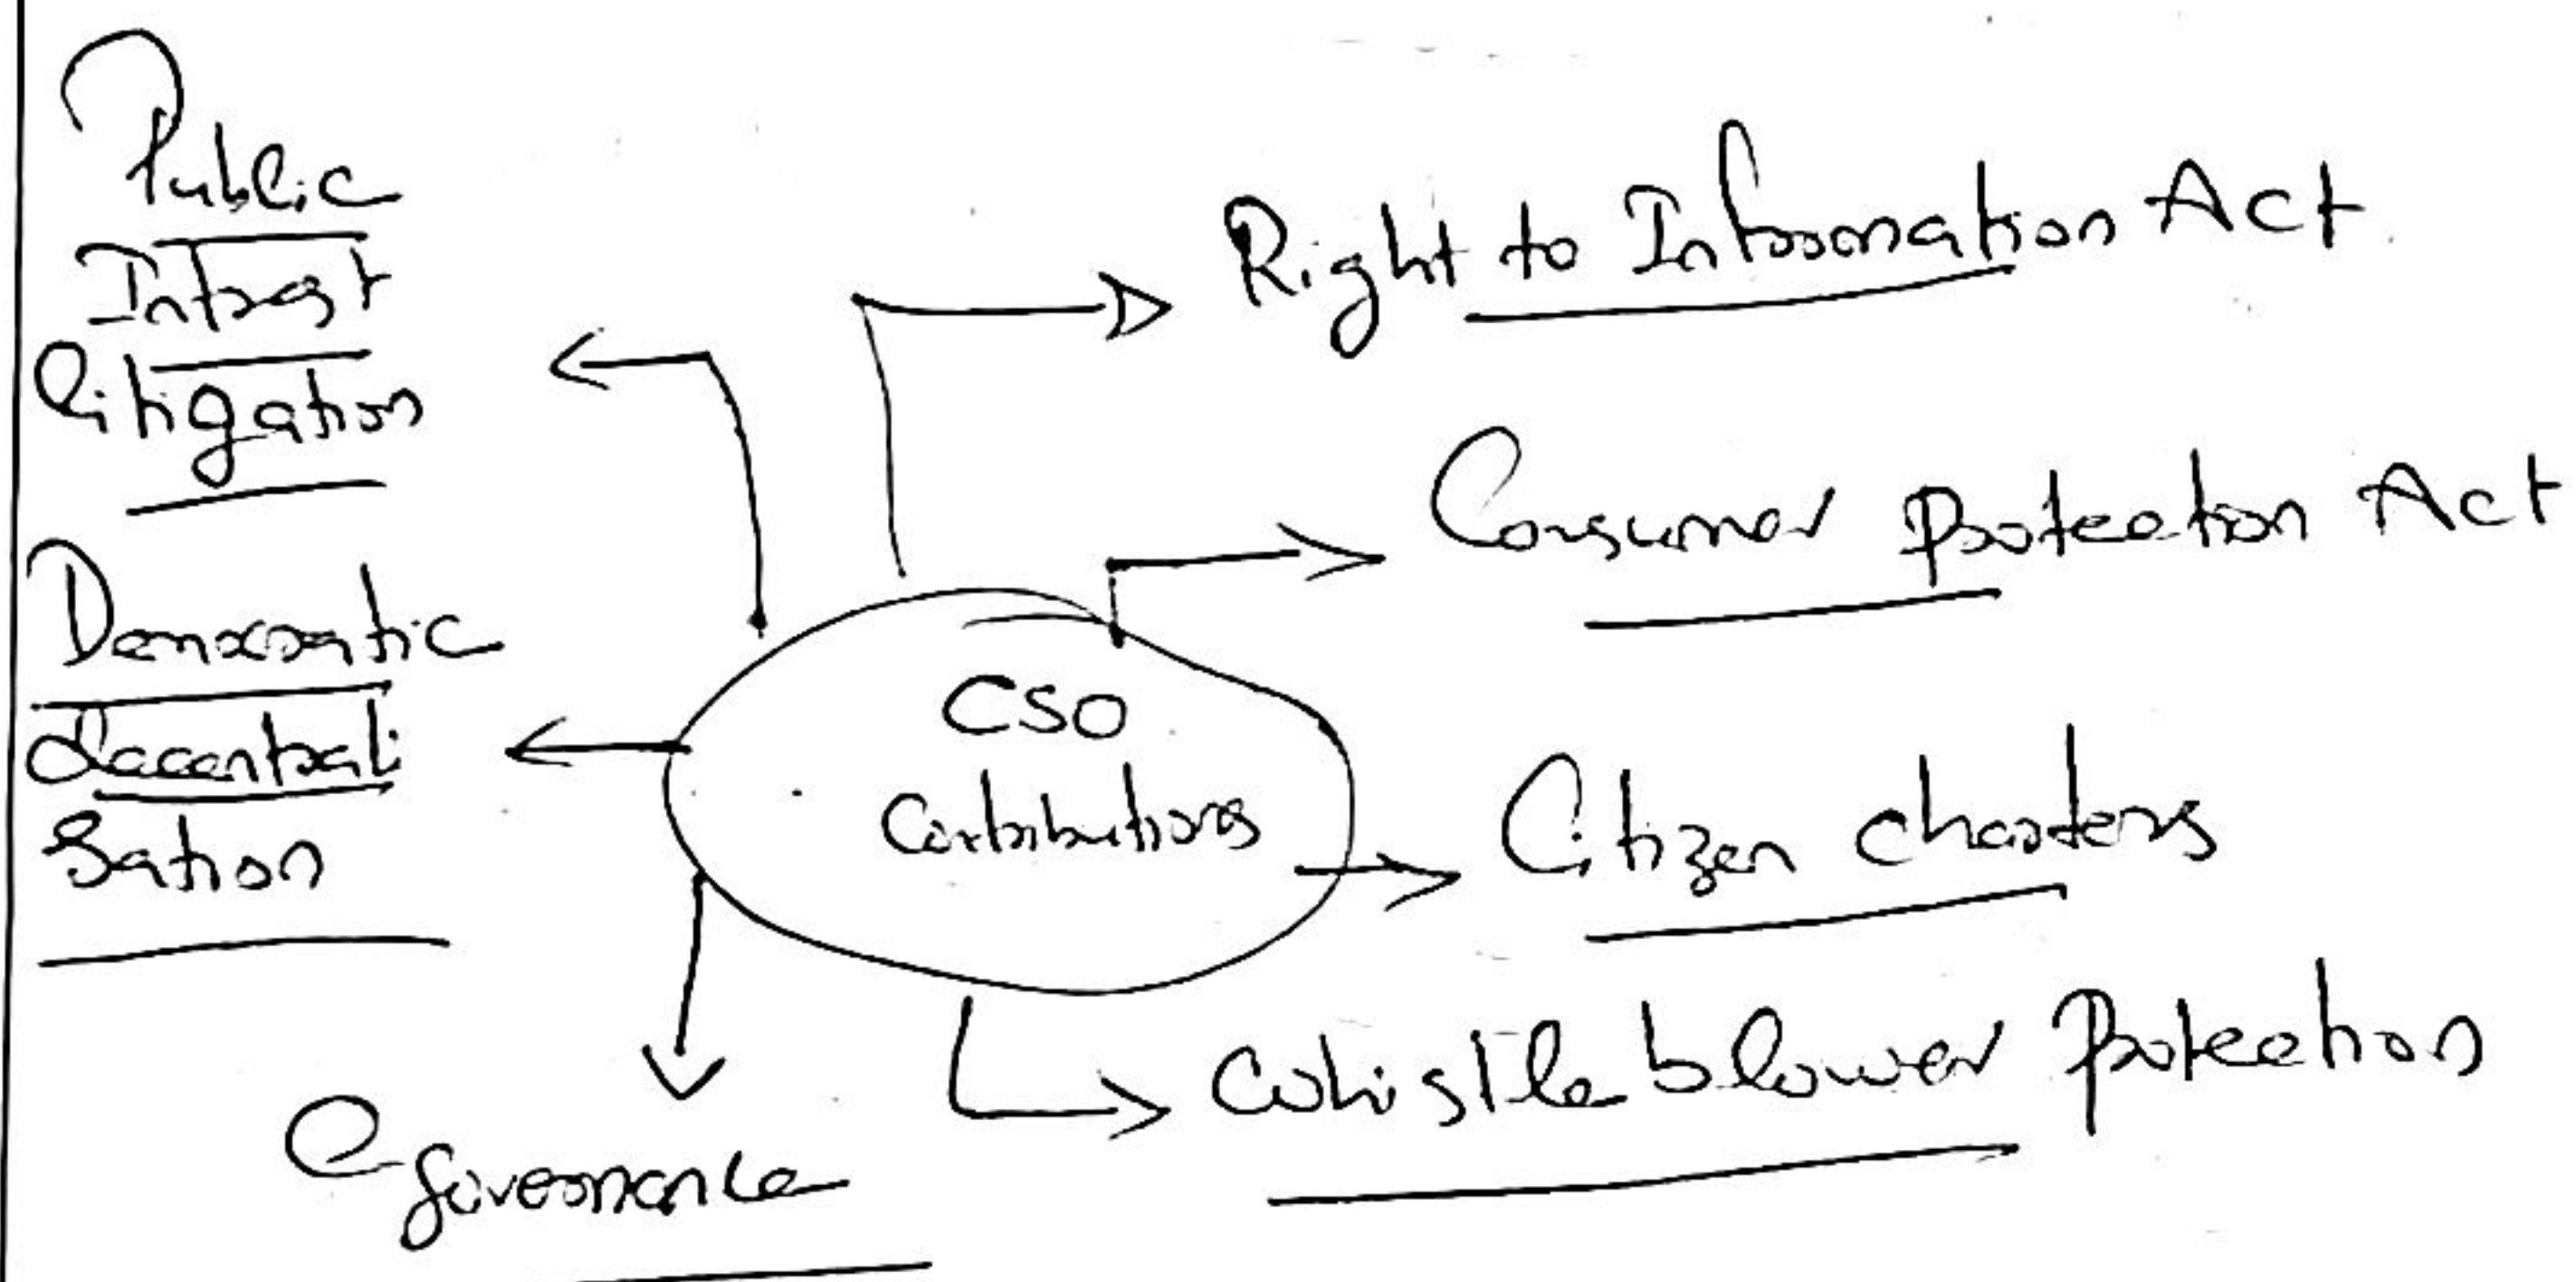

3) In depth Analysis: Apart from Participatory they only Concentrate on research and analysis and some times they Participate on human welfare missions.

eg:- Centre for Science and Environment

1) members itself activists

Mostly this kind associated for Environment Protection movement like Aravali Bachao, Narmada Bachao, Adivasi Chipko and Apiko movements.

Contributions of CSO

CSO and Governance

People trust on CSO, due to their selfless works for the welfare of masses, and awareness programmes. In global level Red Cross, Observer Research Foundation and SIPRI etc play important role in Peace maintenance, the Childline foundation, World Vision, Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav have played important role in raising awareness on child sexual abuse.

People trust in CSO due to

- 1) Contribution of CSO for good governance
- 2) Limit and Control the Power of government

- 3) Exposure of Corruption of Public Officials
- 4) Empowers Citizens about their rights and duties
- 5) Develop other values of democratic life
 - o) Tolerance
 - o) Compromise
 - o) Respect
- 6) Establish dialogue with relevant Government Ministries.
- 7) Inform Public about important public issues

Wayforward

CSO across the world connected to each other for welfare operations; for example Indian CSOs work with foreign CSOs for organizational issues. CSO actually represent the voice of people but sometimes CSO should be transformed or altered for political motives is regrettable one.

Law and order issues generated by CSOs sometimes are uncontrollable one as they create headache to government and its policing systems.