

3) During its presidency of G20, India need to bring all nations in line with its vision. Analyse.

About G20:

In next year 2023 India will host the G20 nations. In G20 meetings, in world major crisis, economic stability and climate change mitigations will discussed in G20 meeting, in this year G20 meeting was held in Bali,

India's G20 presidency:-

India will have to face several challenges to host G20 meeting in next upcoming year G20 meeting because on going Russian-Ukraine war and in the world level economic instability, crude oil issues are all issues are very critical issues. India want to need all the crisis should handle in stable manner,

China's border issue :-

In India and China have the border issue India want to speak with China in peace full manner, and also line of actual control crisis

India's stand :-

Preparing for future ~~strategic~~ ~~prelates~~ including climate change and global warming, food and energy shortages, terroris and conflict and bringing the digital divide.