

Creation of a new class as the working class and bourgeoisie.

ii) Fast urbanisation :-

* Before the Industrial revolution, Most of the population of the world (75%) lived in villages and depended on agriculture.

* With the growth of industrialisation, the picture was completely transformed. i.e., the centre of economic life shifted to the cities.

* Now a days, the lot of population was not connected with land.

* In industrialized countries, less than 20% of the population is connected with land.

iii) Social changes :-

* The industrial and economic developments of the industrial revolution brought significant social changes.

* Industrialization resulted in an increase in population and the phenomenon of urbanization, as a growing number of people moved to urban centres in search of employment.

iv) Women and child welfare:

* Women facing different demands during the industrial age to those that they face today.

* Women of the working classes would usually
