

Discuss the various challenges present in the Generation of wind energy in India and suggest remedial measures to overcome it?

Wind energy is a not polluted and clean fuel energy sources. India got position 5th in the world rank of installation of wind energy capacity. nearly 46043 megawatt wind power Generation in India.

Various challenges of Generating wind energy.

- ① lack of instrument and technology infrastructure.
- ② a large amount of population in Generating the wind energy place.
- ③ lack of Governmental as well as administrative effort towards it.
- ④ wind energy is a land based utility so as a high population it's create big technology.
- ⑤ irresponsible of pollution control board

India has lot of potential to Generate the wind power like Odisha, Gujarat, Tamil Nadu, Jammu Kashmir etc.

important wind power Generate state important measures to Generate the wind energy.

- ① Government gave importance and create various policy taken towards it.
- ② shiftment the people of high Generating wind power place.

- ④ uses modern technological instrument.
- ⑤ a separate committee constituted to monitor & control wind energy generation.

advantages of wind power generation.

Wind power generation is a non fuel or polluted thing and it also contribute to nation development through the creating employment so the Government create more to more wind power sector.