In what ways can India contribute to the peace efforts in the Russia-Ukraine war? Discuss (200 Words)

India is on tricky position with respect to Russia-Ukraine conflict because India enjoys cordial relations with Russia and Ukraine.

India can contribute in peace effort with help of UN, if both parties want in following way.

- (1) by persuading both parties, to resolve conflict in diplomatic channel.
- (2) By appraising ground situation that prolonged war of almost nine months benefited none.
- (3) By assuring both parties that no parties further resort to arm conflict by ~~force~~ fostering trust by mediation.

- (4) By giving account of spillover effect of war throughout globe in the form of food crises, energy crisis among others.
- (5) by encouraging parties to take people centric decision, because it is the people who are ultimate sufferers.

Challenges

- (1) Ego defensive attitude of the leaders of both countries
- (2) Supply of salvo and ammunition by western countries including the USA.
- (3) Trust deficit between the concerned parties

U.P.S.C.

- (4) Failure of international organisation like UN, UNSC
- (5) Mutual interest of global parties aligning with parties in conflict
- (6) Threat to sovereignty of Russia was ignored by western nations

As India said, this is not the era of war, implicit idea was India contribute to resolve the conflict, if parties are interested. This will benefit global community.
