Q. Fraternity is among the basic values inscribed in the Preamble of the Constitution of India. Discuss (200 words)

Ans: The idea of fraternity is based on the view that people have responsibilities to each other. which was defined after French Revolution. But in Indian context, fraternity is a sense of imperative in the emotions

In the preamble of Indian Consti-tution, fraternity forms the union of trinity with liberty and equality. and without one others cannot be realised.

- The union of the trinity is necessary and must condition to have Union of States in a way that fraternity assures the dignity of the individual and in term unity and integrity of the nation.

- In long term, it also promote the justice, liberty and equality.

These value were enforced by Article 14(a) of Fundamental Duty which mandates it is duty of every citizen of India to promote harmony and spirit of motherhood, transcending religion, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities

Thus, Fraternity underpins the Union which can only be realised by sense of commonness and emotions thereby leads a sense of urgency to.
