

Social Issues

The Homophobic attitude of Society goes against the Constitutional trust of fraternity. Comment. (200 words)

Homophobia is based on Prejudice against homosexual persons living in the Society.

The Prejudice turns into hate against the group and this affects the Principle of Fraternity.

M. K. Gandhi commented that People must love each other and must incorporate intolerance over other religions and this contributes to Fraternity.

People's attitude towards Homosexual Couples

• The People who are followers the ^{Patrilial} norms, ^{traditional beliefs} Prejudicing against these Homosexual People.

For Ex: Parents of Homosexual Couple themselves hating against their child.

• The People who have much belief in God advocating society that God created Adam and Eve, not "Adam and Steve".

- People who feared about the societal talking restricts couples and don't ^{fields} support to them.

Arguments for Homosexual Couples:

- Recently SC has ordered one of the Parents to release their child whom was house arrested and asked the couples whether they want to live together.

Thus SC reiterated people's freedom & dignity.

- Dr. B. R. Ambedkar had told the Constituent Assembly that Fraternity is treating everybody with dignity and to have Common brotherhood.

He reiterated that Fraternity, Equality and Liberty is not a borrowed philosophy, its already existing from the ancient times.

- According to Itihases, Puranas, Mahabharata so many Gods have themselves turned into another gods to show the humanitarianism and ^{to} teach it. Thus People's bias against selective group must be overcome through proper awareness.