

Switzerland's foreign policy strategy seeks to further advance ties with India. Explain.

Swiss-India foreign policy will celebrate 75th anniversary of the signing in New Delhi of the 1948 Treaty of Friendship ^{India}. As a priority to Switzerland, it seeks further advance ties with India.

Switzerland & India's cooperation on different Areas.

Switzerland & India's foreign policy seeks future ties with India.

Trade

1. Economical ties -

→ Trade talks between Switzerland & India in European free trade Association

on a high priority list.
→ Swiss act as a leaders of Industrial
4.0 revolution with India.

2. Technology & Innovations

→ Switzerland is a home to world leading technology companies & leading role in researching new technologies.

3. Political ties.

→ As a newly elected member of UN Security Council Switzerland promote peace & mediation.

→ Switzerland represents India's interest on Pakistan.

4. Digitization → As a new area, great potential for digital governance to digital self determination.
Thus, Bilateral ties ~~can~~ between these two countries have great potential for India to build economically, politically & socially. Shared priorities, democratic values & foreign policy independence of Swiss & Switzerland ⑧ - India can together contribute to global good.